Annex

Programme information:

Marriage Support

a. Early Marriage Support (EMS) Programme

- Marriage preparation and support programme for civil minor couples (where one or both parties are aged 18-below 21 years) and young couples (groom aged 21-below 25 and with bride aged 21 years old and above). The marriage preparation programme is mandatory for minor couples to attend before applying for marriage.
- Comprises one-to-one consultations, group marriage education workshops, and post-marriage peer support, to help couples to understand each other and to equip them with practical skills to build strong marriages.

b. Transnational Family Support Programme (TFSP)

- Marriage preparation and marriage support programmes are tailored for transnational couples.
- Covers key issues such as roles, expectations, conflict management and communication, with a cross-cultural context, and integration into Singapore society. Programme materials are provided in multiple languages, i.e. English, Chinese, Malay, Tamil, Thai and Vietnamese.
- Couples are invited to join a friendship programme which provides buddy pairing for up to 2 years to further support couples in their integration and marital stability through social activities and family life education. Those who require more support will be referred to relevant programmes and services e.g. parenting programmes, financial assistance.

c. INSPIRASI Hubs for Early Muslim Marriages

- Marriage preparation and support programme for Muslim minor couples (where one or both parties are aged 18-below 21 years) and young couples (groom aged 21-below 25 and with bride aged 21 years old and above). The marriage preparation programme is mandatory for minor couples to attend before applying for marriage.
- Comprises services for minor and young Muslim couples, including marriage preparation and enrichment, peer support, casework and counselling and referral services, and support for parents of young couples.

d. Vista Sakinah for Remarriages and Stepfamilies

- Remarriage preparation and support for Muslim remarrying couples and stepfamilies, where one or both parties have at least one dependent child (below 21 years of age).

- Comprises services for remarriages and stepfamilies, including marriage preparation and enrichment, support groups, casework and counselling and referral services. Children’s programmes are also offered to support children adapt to the new family and thrive.

Divorce Support

a. Mandatory Co-Parenting Programme (CPP)

- To better support divorcing couples in making informed decisions that prioritise the well-being of their children, CPP consists of 2 components: e-learning and 1 to 3 consultation session(s) with a counsellor, which can be attended individually or with spouse. Each session may take more than an hour, and the counsellor will assess the number of CPP sessions to attend at the end of the first session.
- CPP is mandatory for all couples filing for divorce, if they have children below 21 years old. For more information, please visit the FAQs and the CPP application process.

b. Children-in-Between (CiB)

- Evidence-based programme for parents and children.
- Parental component equips parents with skills to improve co-parenting cooperation for better child outcomes.
- The child component equips children with skills to cope with their feelings of being caught in the middle of parental conflicts. It is suitable for children aged 6-14 years old.

c. Parenting PACT

- Two-hour one-time consultation session for divorced parents with at least one child below age 21.
- Helps parents to understand the impact of divorce on their children, learn co-parenting strategies, practise self-care and get more information about the community support resources available.

d. Supervised Exchange and Supervised Visitation (SE/SV)

- Interim measure to help highly acrimonious families manage difficulties over child access matters by providing a safe platform for access.
- This programme is strictly for court-ordered cases only
- Only available at FAM@FSC (Allkin– Ang Mo Kio), FAM@FSC (Care Corner -Eunos) and FAM@FSC (THK)

Family Counselling Support

(a) Family Counselling

- Counselling service for various family relationship issues such as marriage, divorce, parent-child relationship, and those relating to ageing and extended families.
- Families with more complex needs beyond family relationship, such as housing, employment and health issues, will be referred to FSCs for more holistic case management.

(b) Online Counselling on Family Assist (OCFA)

- Online counselling service is an anonymous platform for individuals experiencing pre-marital, marital, parenting, divorce and family-related issues. The service is accessible at OCFA.

Other Relevant Service

b. Family Assist

- An online resource portal for couples seeking to strengthen their marriage amidst challenges, or who are considering divorce.
- The portal consolidates information on pertinent issues (such as co-parenting and the impact of divorce), tools to enable couples to pause and reflect, and resources for couples to seek help both online and offline.
